Product Content Label[1]

This is a renewable energy certificate (REC) product. For every unit of renewable electricity generated, an equivalent amount of RECs are produced. The purchase of RECs supports renewable electricity generation, which helps reduce conventional electricity generation in the region where the renewable generator is located.

THE PRODUCT WILL BE MADE UP OF THE FOLLOWING RENEWABLE RESOURCES:

Green-e Energy Certified New[2] Renewables in WIND

RESOURCE	%	LOCATION
Biomass	0 %
Geothermal	0%
Eligible Hydroelectric	0%
Solar	0%
Wind	100%	U.S.
Total	100%

[1] Actual figures may vary according to resource availability. We will annually report to you the actual resource mix of the RECs you purchased during the preceding year.

[2] New renewables come from generation facilities that first began commercial operation on or after January 1, 1999.

[3] Eligible hydroelectric facilities are defined in the Green-e Energy National Standard and include facilities certified by the Low Impact Hydropower Institute (LIHI); facilities that are run-of-the-river hydropower facilities with a total rated nameplate capacity equal to or less than 5 MW; and facilities comprised of a turbine in a pipeline or a turbine in an irrigation canal.

For comparison, the average (2011) mix of energy sources supplying the US includes: Coal (42%), Natural Gas (25%), Nuclear (19%), Large Hydroelectric (8%), Renewables (4%), and Other (2%), (from U.S. Department of Energy/Energy Information Administration).

The average home in the United States uses 900 kWh per month. [Source: U.S. EPA]
